ALL SORTS.

Several murderers were hanged throughout the country yesterday.

The minstrels satisfied a large audience at the Opera House last night.

Miss Lena Matthews, who has been visiting friends in Carson, returned to Virginia yesterday.

At St. Louis yesterday the Sheriff and several of his posse were killed in a battle with escaped convicts.

The tax levy for 1894 has been fixed at $3.30 on the $100 in White Pine county. This is five cents less than last year.

"There is too much money," yells the goldbug, subsidized, Wall street press.

Yep
Feel in your pockets.

Carson City is advertising a "Hard Times" party to take place in that city shortly; it must be a sort of wheel within a wheel, for there has been a "hard times" party on the rampage in the United States since last election, which is more than enough for most people.—Journal.

The much-abused man, Andrew Carnegie, who is a stockholder in the famous Pittsburgh Iron and Steel Mills, in order to employ the poor and keep them alive, is operating his mills at a loss of $7,200 per day, and has contributed $5,000 per day in cash for sixty days to provide food for the unemployed in Pittsburgh. This is one of the "Protective Barons" the Democrats speak of.

Sierra Nevada Election.

The prediction of the Enterprise, that Rodger Pendergast would succeed A. J. McDonnell in the Superintendency of the Sierra Nevada mine, was verified at the annual election of that company held in San Francisco on January 17, of which the following is the result:

President, C. H. Fish; Vice President, C. H. Hirschfield; Secretary, E. L. Parker; Superintendent, Roger Pendergast; Directors—Charles H. Fish, Charles Hirschfield, A. K. P. Harmon, Thomas Cole and H. Zadrig. Out of a total of 100,000 shares $8,774 were represented at the meeting.

The new Superintendent has charge of the work in the Union Consolidated mine from the 900 level, of which the joint Sierra Nevada drift is being advanced into the latter ground. It is rumored that there will be an increase in the number of miners employed in the Alpha Mining Company.—Enterprise.

Music Hath Charms.

While the APPEAL editor was following the Barlow band up and down street yesterday, he was so interested in the splendid music that he didn't notice a high place in the sidewalk. He therefore ran his head into a sack of coal in front of Rail's, tore his pants on a Buckeye reaper, and threw one overshoe on the roof of the Warren engine house, and the other went through a window in A. Jacobs tailor shop. The band played right on.

A Daring Deed.

Boston, Mass., January 19.—Court street was crowded last night when a stranger hurled a brick through the plate-glass window of Harrington & Freeman's jewelry store, opposite the old Courthouse. Before promenaders realized what had been done the man had reached through the broken window and abstracted a tray containing $300 worth of diamonds. He emptied the contents in his coat pocket and escaped.

Mitchell accepts McAuliffe's Challenge.

San Francisco, Jan. 18.—Young Mitchell, the middle weight champion of the Pacific Coast, has wasted no time in considering Jack McAuliffe's challenge. He accepted the challenge tonight. Jim Ryan, the Australian, wants another chance at both Mitchell and McAuliffe and issued a challenge to that effect today.

Found Dead.

It was reported last night that a man was found dead under the railroad bridge at Camp 24, near the State line. The coroner came down from Truckee and removed the body to that place. Who he was and the cause of his death could not be learned.—Journal.

Dputy Constable S. E. Patterson is authorized to collect all accounts due Summers & Dauchy.

FAIR DEDICATION DAY.

Everything Will be in Readiness at the Mid-winter for the Event.

San Francisco, Jan. 18.—The installation of heavy machinery in the Mid-winter Exposition is progressing rapidly. It is expected the first steam will be turned on Sunday next and the plan for lighting the Central Plaza with electricity on Dedication day can therefore be carried out.

Preparations for opening the Northern California Citrus Fair have been practically completed and everything will go off according to the programme at two o'clock on Saturday afternoon.

Special commutation tickets for the Exposition, consisting of books containing one hundred admissions, are now ready for delivery. The price is fixed at $49 a hundred.

The horticultural congresses will be held April 24, 25 and 26.

The Iowa State Band arrived here this morning.

The Crow Fund.

Subscriptions to the fund for young Crow, the brave little lad who saved six lives at Brunswick last Sunday, are not coming in as fast as they should. The APPEAL hopes to see the fund get a big boost before Sunday. It now stands as follows:

An APPEAL reporter visited the Crow family at Brunswick yesterday and found it consisted of a father, mother and nine children. They are in very destitute circumstances. Mr. Crow is employed in the mills when they are running, but the low price of silver has stopped them, and he is not able to procure the necessary food and clothing for so large a family, though he is a sober, industrious man.

A Murderous Husband.

Bridgeport, Conn., January 19.—Joseph W. Keeton of New Haven, who is in this city, caused the arrest of his wife, whom he found residing with John Munn, also of New Haven. In this city court yesterday the woman testified that she and Keeton were married in the Universalist Church in New Haven, and that she was the mother of eight children.

"If you wish to know where they are I will tell you," she said, and, looking directly at her husband, she went on: "They are all dead, and you murdered them! Your shameful abuse of me killed my children, not one of the eight having lived more than four or five days." Her husband denied most of the charges, but admitted that several of the children died for want of care. The accused couple were held in $500 bonds.

Locomotives were used to take the trees off the large track between Alta and Towles, which had been thrown there by a landslide. Locomotives were placed on either side of the obstructions and log chains leading from them fastened to the trunks of the pines. They were then drawn out of the landslide as a dentist draws teeth.
